

RADIO DIVISIONS

Cities that are within 20 miles of one another are considered one market and the larger of the city sizes will determine the division.

Metro Radio: Albuquerque

Large Market Radio: Farmington, Las Cruces, Roswell, Santa Fe

Medium Radio: Alamogordo, Carlsbad, Clovis/Portales, Gallup, Hobbs

Small Radio: Artesia, Belen, Chama, Clayton, Deming, Espanola, Grants, Las Vegas, Los Alamos, Lovington, Magdalena, Questa, Raton, Ruidoso, Santa Rosa, Silver City, Socorro, Taos, T or C, Tucumcari

GENERAL RULES

Any staff member -- full, part-time or student intern -- of a broadcast station that is an NMBA member is eligible to submit entries.

Stations may choose to participate in the division based on their market size or the next higher division. (See division descriptions below.) Stations are not eligible to compete in lower divisions. Stations must compete in only one division across all entries.

Radio entries must have been broadcast within the past 12 months, ending March 31 of the current year. Each entry must have been broadcast on a station that is a current member of the NMBA and broadcast within the state of New Mexico.

Individual achievement awards may not be awarded to the same individual in different divisions. (i.e., DJ Personality cannot be awarded to the same person in Division 1 and Division 2)

Station entries must be submitted as originally broadcast (unless otherwise noted).

All entries must be uploaded on the official NMBA awards website. All entry fees must be paid prior to announcing the winners. Stations may submit one check for all of that station's entries. The fee per entry for $35.
